

“U.S. Sanctions.” The Iran Primer, 11 Oct. 2010,
<https://iranprimer.usip.org/resource/us-sanctions>.

This source mainly speaks about the different administrations by various presidents, and their impact on the sanctions to Iran. This also speaks about the overview of the sanctions imposed on Iran. We can use this to include the different administrations during the 20-30 year period of the sanctions.

“Iran Sanctions - United States Department of State.” U.S. Department of State, U.S. Department of State, 17 Sep. 2021, <https://www.state.gov/iran-sanctions/>

This source mainly talks about the news following the starting of the sanctions. This also talks about the departments who imposed sanctions on Iran. We can include some specific news from the government’s perspective.

“A Brief History of Sanctions on Iran.” Atlantic Council, 8 May 2018,
<https://www.atlanticcouncil.org/blogs/new-atlanticist/a-brief-history-of-sanctions-on-iran/>

This source is very important, as it has all the dates listed out and what each date’s significance is. This source includes all the administrations following the sanctions, and specifically all the details about how and why the sanctions were enforced. We can use this to include specific information about the significance of sanctions, all the dates/timelines, and the different people/administrations.

Hewitt, Kate, and Richard Nephew. “How the Iran Hostage Crisis Shaped the US Approach to Sanctions.” Brookings, Brookings, 12 Mar. 2019, <https://www.brookings.edu/blog/order-from-chaos/2019/03/12/how-the-iran-hostage-crisis-shaped-the-us-approach-to-sanctions/>.

This source thoroughly explains the sanctions from 1979 to today’s day clearly. It talks about how the presidents had handled the situation, and the background of why the sanctions were imposed. This source may be one of the most important sources because it explains how the president handled the sanctions, and more debt about the cause/effect.

A Summary of Sanctions against Iran | CNN.
<https://www.cnn.com/2012/01/23/world/meast/iran-sanctions-facts/index.html>.

This source talks about a few important dates of the sanctions imposed on Iran. It also briefly explains how the sanctions were imposed, thoughts on it, and the different nations that interfered with it (helping the US). We can use this to explain the different nations that worked with the US to stop the nuclear production in Iran.

Blakemore, Erin. "U.S.-Iran Tensions: From Political Coup to Hostage Crisis to Drone Strikes." History.com, A&E Television Networks, 8 May 2018, <https://www.history.com/news/iran-nuclear-deal-sanctions-facts-hostage-crisis>.

This source mainly talks about the background of the sanctions, and how the sanctions started due to the excessive amount of nuclear weapons. This also talks about the few administrations that had assisted the nations to stop the nuclear production. We can talk a lot about how the sanctions started, the different administrations, the problems with the sanctions, and what Iran had to face.

Psaledakis, Daphne, and Humeyra Pamuk. "U.S. Imposes Sweeping Sanctions on Iran, Targets Khamenei-Linked Foundation." Reuters, Thomson Reuters, 18 Nov. 2020, <https://www.reuters.com/article/usa-iran-sanctions-int/u-s-imposes-sweeping-sanctions-on-iran-targets-khamenei-linked-foundation-idUSKBN27Y262>.

This talks about the specific administrations that helped stop the production of nuclear weapons by Iran. It also speaks about what Iran wanted to target and the number of protests that happened over the period of time. We can include the effects of the sanctions and how the people of Iran reacted to it.

"Iran's Evolving Nuclear Program and Implications for U.S. Policy." Iran's Evolving Nuclear Program and Implications for U.S. Policy | Center for Strategic and International Studies, 29 Oct. 2021, <https://www.csis.org/analysis/irans-evolving-nuclear-program-and-implications-us-policy>

This source talks about how the nuclear weapons were created by Iran and what organizations followed with it. It also mentions the power Iran had during the period of nuclear production. We can include specific details on how nuclear weapons were made.

Iran Sanctions - FAS. <https://sgp.fas.org/crs/mideast/RS20871.pdf>.

This source talks about the different acts that were constructed to force Iran to stop its continuation of nuclear production. It also speaks about what each important figure contributed. We can include the different acts and rules that were enforced on Iran.

“Iran Deal.” National Archives and Records Administration, National Archives and Records Administration, <https://obamawhitehouse.archives.gov/issues/foreign-policy/iran-deal>.

This source mainly talks about the nuclear production by Iran and what they are planning for the future. It also speaks about the Iran Deal. We can include the information on why Iran had to continue producing nuclear weapons and what Iran had to offer for the stopping of the nuclear weapons.

: “The Economic Impact of Iran Sanctions.” The Economic Impact of Iran Sanctions | Center for Strategic and International Studies, 22 Oct. 2021, <https://www.csis.org/analysis/economic-impact-iran-sanctions>.

This source includes plenty of information showing the short and long term impacts of the sanctions. The economic sanctions have caused several reasons for Iran’s economy to produce less nuclear products. We can use this information in our website by including information about the short and long term impacts.

“Fact Sheets & Briefs.” Timeline of Nuclear Diplomacy With Iran | Arms Control Association, <https://www.armscontrol.org/factsheets/Timeline-of-Nuclear-Diplomacy-With-Iran>.

This source includes a detailed timeline showing the impacts throughout the years since the sanctions and new sanctions were imposed. It also includes some background information about the people who designed the sanctions. We can use the detailed timeline in our project and include some more information for the short and long term impacts.

After sanctions: Challenges facing the Iranian economy. PAAIA. (2016, May 26). Retrieved February 7, 2022, from <https://paaia.org/CMS/after-sanctions-challenges-facing-the-iranian-economy.aspx>

This source includes several details about the challenges faced by Iran during the several sanctions trying to cut down their power. This includes the number of barrels of oil produced, what Iran is trying to do essentially “fight back”, and their overall response. We can talk about the significance of these sanctions and how they affected Iran and their neighboring countries.

Radcliffe, B. (2022, January 21). How economic sanctions work. Investopedia. Retrieved February 7, 2022, from <https://www.investopedia.com/articles/economics/10/economic-sanctions.asp>

This source talks about what exactly are sanctions and why a specific country can receive them. It also shows the positive and usually negative consequences of receiving them. It can affect their relations with neighboring countries and can damage the economy, shown by Iran. We can include information about what exactly sanctions are and how they can affect a specific country.